EAGLE

Goldthwaite High School

Despite losses in the field of sports, spirit remained high at G. H. S. In the halls, in the stands, and in the park (the park?) smiles of encouragement and excitement were on the faces of players and fans alike. The Pep Squad girls were even willing to forsake fashion for a day to cheer up the team. Jr. High took time out for a little relaxation as football season came to a close.

As basketball season set in, one teacher departed and one returned, a student scored national success, and the Kindergarten girls removed their disguises to celebrate Christmas. The elementary girls let their hair down for an exciting relay race and horseplay remained the main activity at old G. H. S.

Another year has come and gone and with it many activities - banquets, plays, scholastic and athletic achievements. The Goldthwaite Annual Staff has tried to capture these moments and many more in this annual.

It is with great pride that we present this annual with the hope that it reflects the many events that have shaped this school year 1972-73.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many people who have made my job as Editor much easier and more fun over the past two years. On these two pages I would like to introduce some of the members of the Annual Staff whose hard work throughout the year has given us this annual.

Susan Derrick

ANNUAL STAFF

Our Co-Editors, Frances Long and Elaine Harper, have done a great job of making decisions concerning this annual and handling the supervision of the photographs used in it. Susan Morrow has been an asset to us, doing everything from running errands to assisting the Co-Editors.

Steven Saylor, our feature writer, has done a fine job of producing articles that explain the events illustrated in this annual.

Our sponsor, Mrs. Yvonne Childress, tries hard to see to it that this annual will be one that everyone can be proud of.

Annual Staff members doing their various jobs, each job equally important no matter how large or small - from selling ads to setting up pages. The result of their hard work and assorted talents is this annual, THE 1973 EAGLE.

We, the G. H. S. ANNUAL STAFF of 1973, take pride in DEDICATING this volume to our principal, MR. HOYETT BROWNING. In addition to his duties as a teacher, physical education instructor and principal, Mr. Browning has sponsored the Beta Club for many years and has also directed the school's one-act play. His co-operation has been invaluable to the Annual Staff, and we hope that this edition will be one that he - and all of GHS - can be proud of.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT

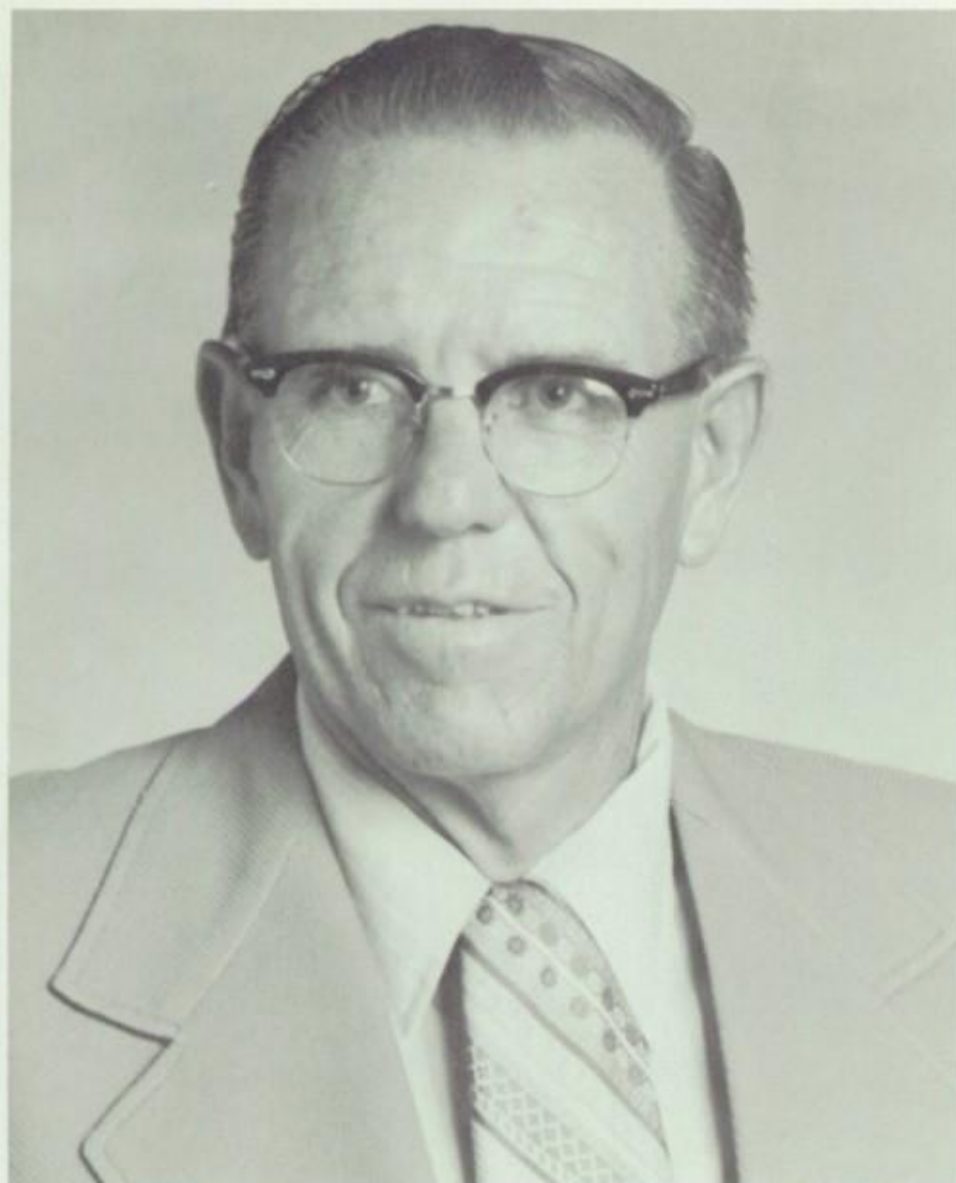

Another year has come and gone with many heartaches, troubles, joys, blessings, and achievements. We hope each of you has gotten out of life what you wanted and what you should have gotten.

Through the visions essential to clear thinking, the common sense needed for wise decisions, the courage of convictions based on facts not fancies, and the constructive spirit of faith as opposed to the destructive forces of doubt we pursue our Christian way of life. We hope each of you has obtained these goals. Best of everything to each of you and God bless you.

PRINCIPAL

To the Seniors of 1973 we bid a fond farewell. It is my sincere desire that many of the things you have learned and the influence of the administration and faculty at Goldthwaite High School may have a positive effect on you throughout all of your life.

To you who will return, may you always remember that anything worth doing is worth your best effort. May you always do your very best at all that you attempt.

May God keep and bless each of you.

The Seniors had a busy year attending banquets, parties, and preparing for graduation. They were honored with banquets given by the various churches. The Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom proved to be a memorable event. The Seniors had class parties to celebrate Christmas and St. Patrick's Day. They went to Six Flags for Senior Day.

The Seniors had fun deciding on class colors, caps and gowns, graduation invitations, and class song.

The G.H.S. Band continued its traditional activities this year: boosting school spirit, performing at games, and representing the school in parades, contests, and concerts.

At Solo and Ensemble Contest the Band was unusually well represented by Liz Truitt, Cynthia Koen, Mina Kay Johnson, and Randy Dumas, who all scored grades of II (excellent) for their solos, and Cindy Johnson, Kathy Koen, and Camille Bryant, whose trio also garnered a II.

Band personalities included Rita Ynostrosa, who won the 1973 band medal as the year's outstanding student.

BETA CLUB

The Beta Club had another busy year. They were in charge of running the popcorn machine at the basketball games. In November, students having a 90 point grade average were invited to become members. The members then began selling Beta Club candy. The money from this project went into the scholarship fund. In January, several members attended the National Beta Club Convention which is held annually in Dallas. In May, the Beta Club awarded two Seniors with fifty dollar scholarships.

The FHA is an organization that is involved in activities which benefit the school and the community. At the beginning of the year they elected Robin Reid as FHA Beau and Chapter Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Derrick and Mr. and Mrs. Spot Saylor.

The FHA carried out many worthwhile projects during the year - Pen Pals from Cherokee and Round Rock Orphanages, sold Halloween Insurance, made Christmas candy for girls at Brownwood State School, invited FFA boys to U. N. Dinners, had Christmas in March for kindergarteners, and helped with the Cancer Drive. The FHA and FFA went to the State Fair in October.

In December six sophomores entered the Make It Yourself With Wool Contest. Two of the girls, Melissa Coats and Laquita Williams, went to State Competition. Melissa competed in the National Contest in Washington, D. C., where she placed in the Top Ten.

The FHA had several winning entries in the various divisions of the Mills County Stock Show.

In April they observed National FHA Week by attending the Baptist Church, and organizing special activities during the week including the FFA and FHA Party.

The FHA Parents' Night Banquet was the highlight of the year. The FFA boys served at the banquet. Susan Derrick received the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award. Cindy Shaw was named FHA'er of the Semester. Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Head were presented with an honorary FHA membership. Speaker for the evening was Del Barnett.

Melissa Coats received the Crisco Award which is given to the outstanding homemaking student.

The year ended with the Installation of officers for the 1973-74 year and a tea honoring Incoming Freshmen.

The Future Farmers of America is an organization for boys enrolled in Vocational Agriculture. In addition to their own livestock projects and classroom agriculture, they have opportunity to enter a wide variety of contests with other schools.

The F.F.A. Sweetheart for 1973 was Jacine Davis. She is active in rodeos and other school activities.

This year our F.F.A. chapter participated in contests for parliamentary procedure, F.F.A. quiz, grass identification, and judging contest in livestock, range, and meats. Twenty-three members of this chapter exhibited project livestock in the Mills County Livestock Show and six boys, Bill Bishop, Robin Reid, Roy Watters, Alfred Bunting, Fredy Johnson, and Eddie Perry, exhibited at the major shows. Bill Bishop, Andy Cook, Alfred Bunting, Robin Reid, Reggie Robbins, David Schwartz, and Roy Watters were awarded the Lone Star Farmer Degree at the State Convention and Mark Geeslin and Larry Elliott are applying this year. Ken Leonhard served as State Organist; Robin Reid served as Area VII Vice-President and attended the National Convention.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council began the year differently - they made their own football ribbons. They also sold decals and notebooks. They were in charge of several assembly programs. Several speakers showed slides of various places in the world. One of the favorite projects of the Student Council was to sponsor Freshman Day. They dreamed up all sorts of things for the "Fish" to do. Another activity they sponsored was Western Day. Each semester they presented an outstanding boy and girl with the honor of "Students of the Semester."

The 1972 Pep Squad started the year off early by giving a hamburger party at the park honoring the Eagles and their coaches. When the season did begin, they were ready for it and began action.

Signs were put on the walls, in the lockers, in the cars, and just about everywhere. The halls were filled with yells before school, between classes and most of all at the pep rallies. Skits were also presented at the pep rallies to help raise the spirit.

The annual Football Banquet, honoring the boys and their coaches for the fine work they had done, was the highlight of the year and a great success. The guest speakers were Mike Conradt and Gaylon Jernigan, both were former Eagles.

A hard week of two-a-days and two great scrimmages proved the Eagles had the potential of an excellent team.

However, the traditional game with San Saba got the Eagles off to a slow start with a defeat: 21-26.

A drenching rain at Hamilton didn't stop the Eagles from playing football the way it is supposed to be played. Great determination and teamwork put the Eagles on top: 14-0.

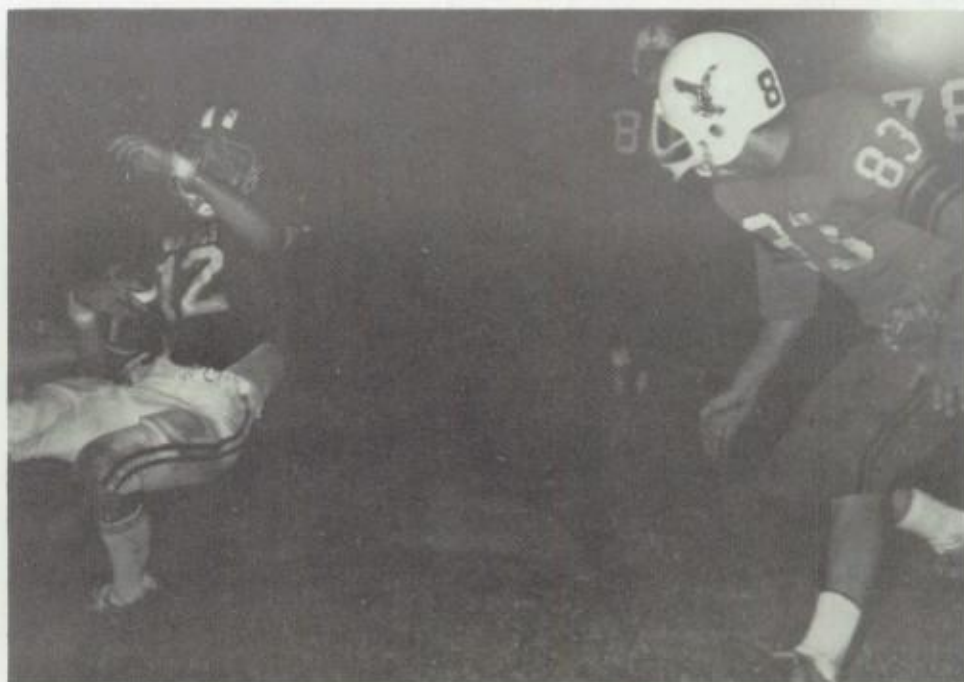

The Eagles set a good pattern to follow in the previous game, but it is hard to win when you lose eight fumbles. The Eagles went down in a hard defeat against Bangs: 13-7.

Driving rain and lightning along with inexperience at positions hampered the game at Marble Falls. The Eagles were beaten 23-6.

The warbirds had a cinch tie in the fourth quarter against Early but went for the win, only to have a pass intercepted in the final seconds: 26-20.

With an open date, the Eagles prepared for District contest. The first clash with Dublin stunned the Eagles: 19-6.

The spirits rose as Homecoming rolled around the corner with four queen candidates and their escorts to lead the halftime activities.

Jacine Davis with Randy Wright - Elaine Harper with David Schwartz.

FRANCES LONG, escorted by Robin Reid, was crowned 1972 Football Sweetheart.

DAVID was named Pep Squad Beau by Vice-President Cheryl Covington.

Homecoming was a close game for the Eagles, with the Glen Rose Tigers inching by with a 7-6 victory.

'72 CAPTAINS:

David Schwartz, Mark Geeslin, and Robin Reid.

Spirit was the theme for the Hico pep rally - the best of the whole year.

The Golden Eagles rose to the occasion against China Springs playing EAGLE brand football. The Showdown proved the Eagles still had some fight left in them. When the dust settled the score board showed 34-12.

Playing for pride, eleven Seniors stepped on the Eagle field for their last game at Goldthwaite. Even though the Eagles fell to Valley Mills, 32-6, they ended the season second to none in spirit and fight.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS' TRACK

1973 saw a track team of little natural ability but great desire and enthusiasm. From the first day of workouts to the last, every boy worked to improve, and improve they did. Every week, as distances increased, times improved. By the time of the district track meet, GHS had a track team that could match any other in the district, except for depth. Goldthwaite won 4th place in the high school division. The B team, without Chuck Shaw, who could not compete because of a shoulder injury, came within 2 points of winning second place. With a team of only 15 athletes, divided into 2 teams, this was an exceptional showing.

Compliments of: HUDSON DRUG

The 1973 track team proved that hard work and desire can build a winning team. Without a doubt, these athletes represented Goldthwaite to the best of their abilities, and each one is to be commended for his work and dedication.

Compliments of: HUDSON DRUG

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS' TRACK

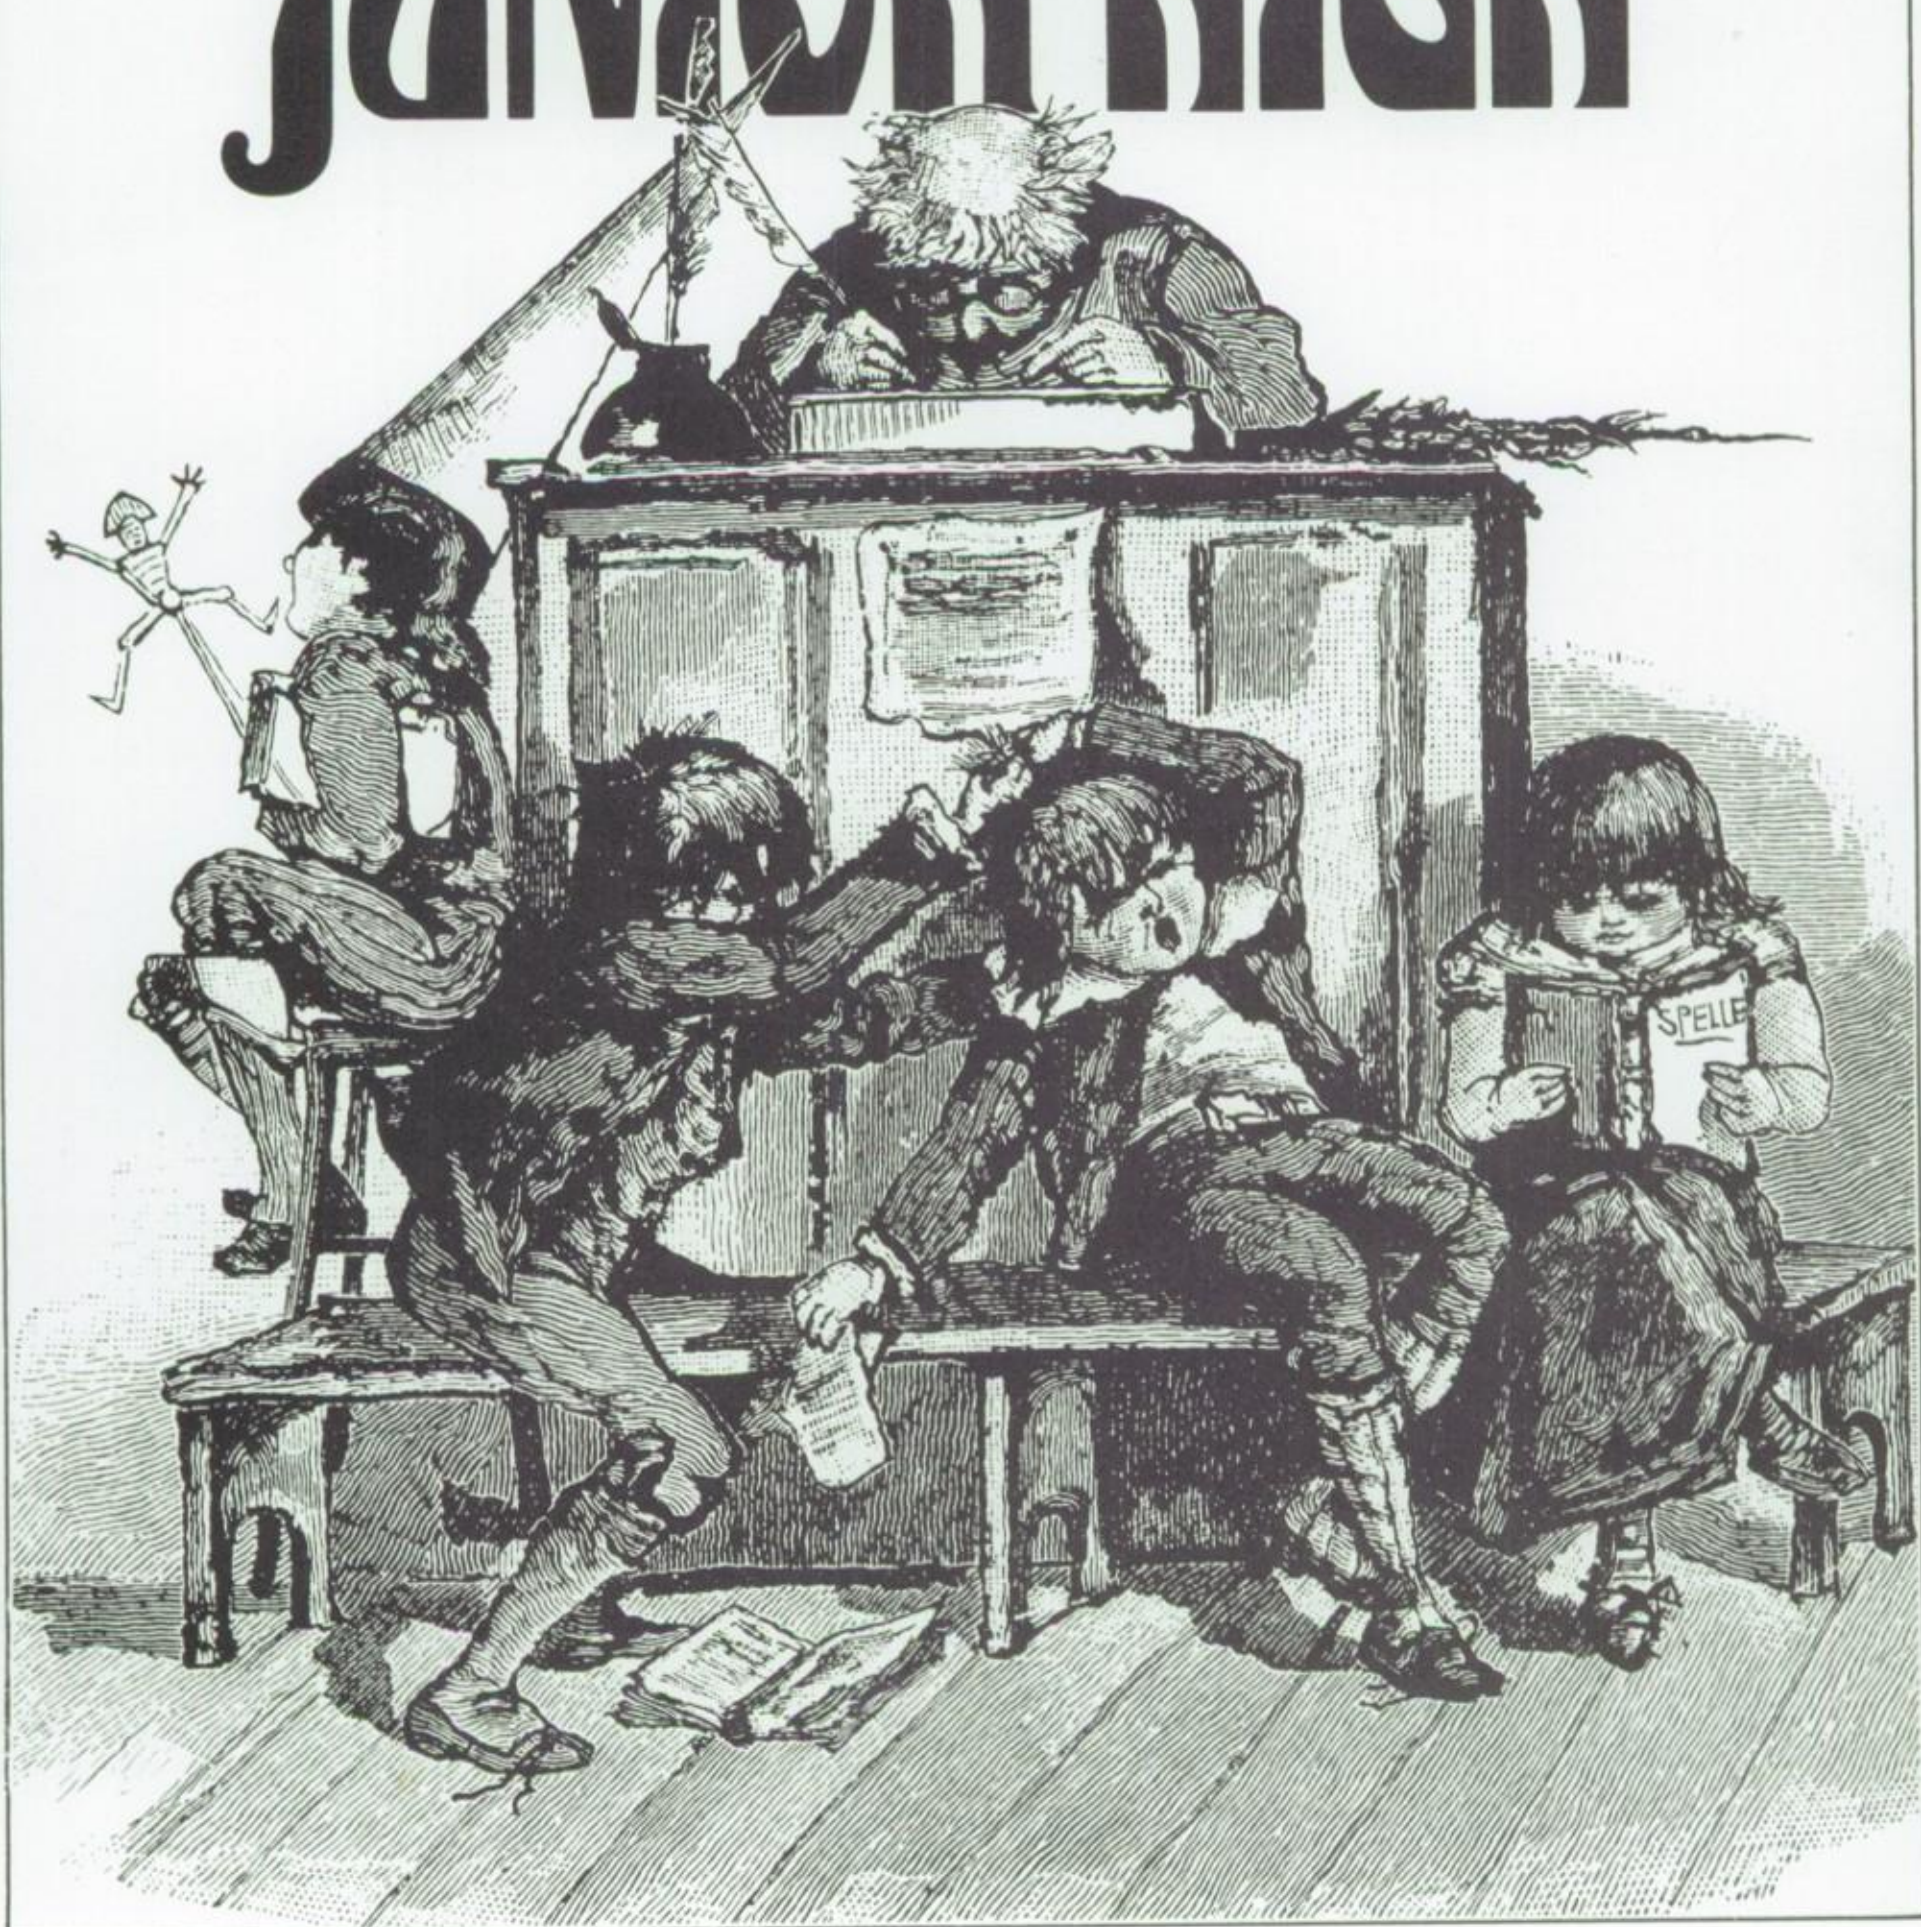

The High School girls' track team, made up of only a few girls willing to do what was required to have a good track team, represented GHS well this season. These select individuals realized the importance of discipline and kept their values in relation to other sports.

The track team placed fourth in the district meet with only ten girls out of a possible fifty-four in the physical education class participating.

GHS was proud of Wanda Watson, who qualified for the regional meet in the 100 yard dash, and Benita Watson, who qualified for regional in the high jump. Wanda placed first in district with 12.4 in the 100 yard dash. Benita jumped 4'7" to take second in the high jump. The sprint relay made up of Melissa Coats, Benita Watson, Jacine Davis, and Wanda Watson should also be commended. They missed a trip to regional by only a tenth of a second and placed third in the sprint relay.

JR.-HIGH TRACK

The Jr. High Girls' Track Team was well represented this year. Approximately 25 girls participated in the track meets. At the San Saba Cross Country Meet, they came in second despite Mickey Ynostrosa's first place and Tammy Head's second place. The highlight of the season occurred when they won first at the district meet. Mickey Ynostrosa and Mina Kay Johnson were outstanding high jumpers; Mickey came in first in district and Mina Kay was first at San Saba and third in district. Gwyn Saylor, Tammy Head, Shelia Slagle, and Mickey Ynostrosa were on the first place 1320 relay team at district. Also at the district meet, Mina Kay placed second in the 80 yard low hurdles, and Tamra Long placed second in the triple jump. They also placed well in the 220 yard dash, 60 yard dash, 100 yard dash, 880 yard relay, and long jump at the district meet.

Jr. High tracksters had a very successful year in 1973. They competed in five meets, never finishing less than third.

Strong performers for this year's Jr. Eagles were David Miller in the pole vault and discus, Robert Hall in the pole vault and relay teams, Tim Spradley in the high jump, broad jump, hurdles, and relay teams, Eddie Martinez in the discus, 440 yard dash, and relay teams, Dwayne Shelton in the high jump and relay teams, Ray Hall in the 880 yard run and relay teams, and Tommy Collier in the sprints and relay teams.

The relay teams proved to be very competitive as they turned in good times each time they raced. The seventh grade sprint relay team was composed of Mike Lee, Tommy Collier, Randy White, and Arturo Siller. Their mile relay team included Mike Lee, Randy White, Kenneth Lawrence, and Arturo Siller. The eighth grade sprint relay team was made up of Dwayne Shelton, Tim Spradley, Eddie Martinez, and Robert Hall. The mile relay team combined the efforts of Robert Hall, Eddie Martinez, Mark Rodman, and Ray Hall.

The district meet was the highlight of this track year. The Jr. High Eagles won the meet with a total of 131 2/3 points to become District Champs.

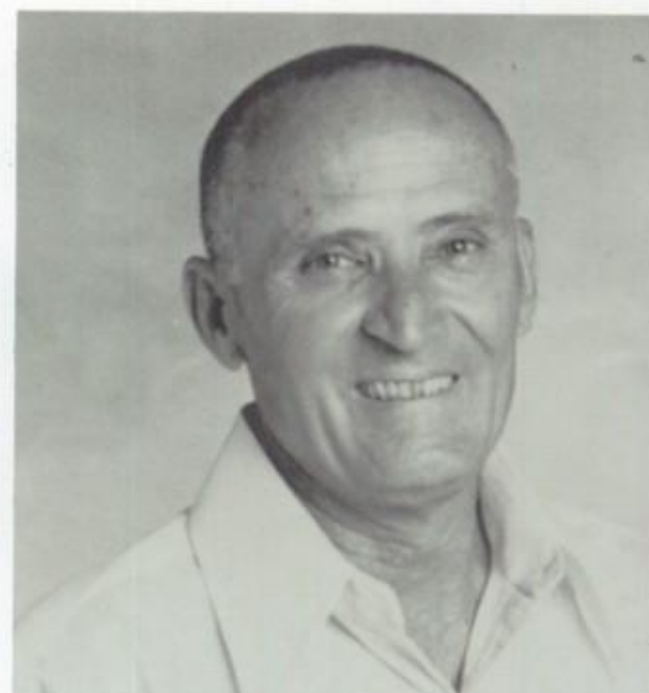

What you and millions of other students are doing in the classrooms today will be reflected in the successes or failures of civilization tomorrow. The peace and prosperity of the World, the way of life we dream of, will not be a reality unless you prepare yourselves to help in bringing such about. As you grow in stature, may you also grow in knowledge and wisdom.

ACTIVITIES

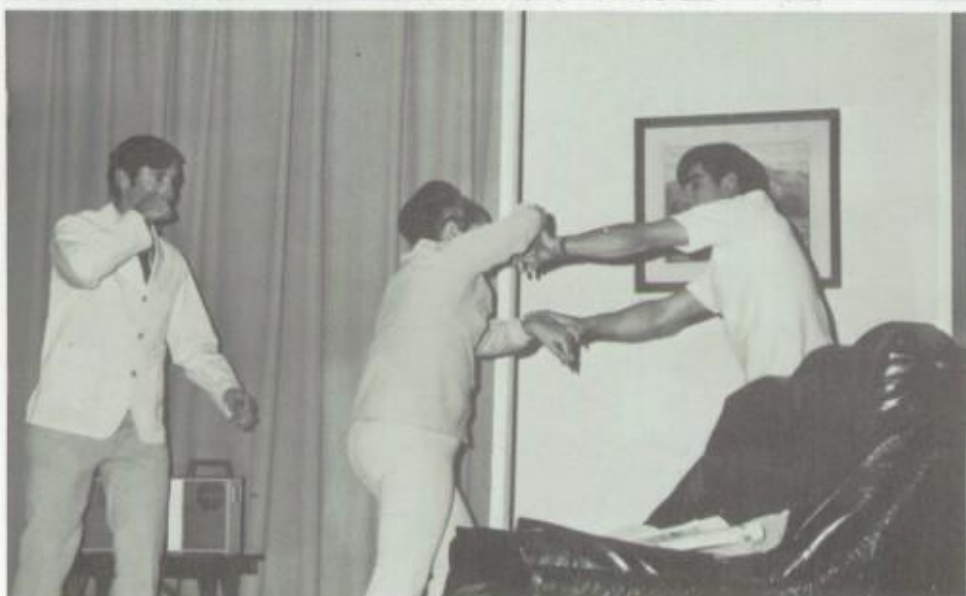

SENIORS PRESENT "THE NIT WITS"

"Eleven to two, to be exact."

"You will call me Constance?!"

"Ah, there you are doctor. I don't see very well."

"Catch me; I'm going to jump!"

"Take that knife away!"

"The Nitwits." Could a name better apply to the Senior class? With all of its chaos and confusion the play well portrays our cast. After ironing out all of the last minute details such as "Slow down," "Speak up," and "Face audience," we rounded up our "nitwits" and produced our play.

"I can't stay here!
He's after me!"

"Poor boy. You look so tired!"

"I lose control. I . . . oh!!!"

"I had to hit that big guy over the head!"

"She flirts with every man she sees!"

"I'm sure he followed me in here!"

I tell you I paid my fare, let me get off!

My eyesight's very good!

Grab 'em!

I don't like the way he busted in on me!!

Locked 'em in the closet!!

MASS PREPARATION

Don't worry, Tommy, you're in good hands.

Choosing the play to fit the cast seemed to be the main idea behind the selection of A-FEUDIN' OVER YONDER. The class had a lot of fun rehearsing; sometimes the commotion backstage drowned out the actor's lines and up to the last minute we were still having trouble controlling the mirth on stage. But, by the last week of practice we had all discarded our chewing gum and settled down to business.

Come on, Izzie!

Are you sure that's the correct geometric procedure?

Compliments of: "A FRIEND" T. C. GRAVES and P & Y AUTO REPAIR, BOAT AND MOTOR - SALES AND SERVICE

Would you believe - CLUCK?

Come on, I dare ya!

Now stop your sniffin' Becky Mae Hornhonker!

A-FEUDIN' OVER YONDER is a classic Hillbilly story, centering around a feud between the Frys and the Popoffs. Rosie Belle Fry (Liz), the family tomboy, decides to marry up with the only unattached boy in the hills (Larry) much to her sister Emmy's (Carla's) despair. In order to make the Popoff boys available by the time the marrying preacher (Steve) makes his annual visit, Emmy persuades Mountain Maggie (Lee Ann) an aged woman who tends the sick, to try to end the feud. Mountain Maggie accomplishes this by bringing Maw Fry (Sandra) and Pappy Popoff (Tommy) together through the aid of a "love potion." The feud is finally ended and everyone lives happily ever after.

I ain't never wore shoes in my life, an' I'm too old ta start now!

Compliments of: WOODY DRUG and WESTERN AUTO - J. C. WESSON

Come on, Sandra, it can't be that bad!

C-Can't we t-talk this over?

Do you, Rosie Belle Fry, take this man . . .

We attribute the great success of our play to the superb acting (although most of us did just what comes naturally), the magnificent costumes (just our regular Sunday best), and, of course, the expert directing by our sponsors, Mrs. Patricia Haddock and Mr. William Harlow.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1973, being of sound and bequeathing mind, do publish this our last will and testament.

To Sally, we will the ability to listen to the bees when they "Buzz."

We will Mike Karnes the ability to quit school and stay gone all year.

Jac wills Coach Baker a track team with no rebels.

Frances wills Liz the ability to "Bob" for a "Long" time.

Dale Berry wishes to will Mrs. Haddock his maturity, industriousness, and intelligence.

We will Mr. Haddock the ability to lose his coffee cup and drink right out of the pot.

Robin Reid and Randy Wright will Mr. Harlow two more human computers to take their place in geometry.

We will Steve Gist a basket to carry the football in so he won't fumble.

We will Patty a free ride to the Priddy dance every Saturday night.

We will Mrs. Cockrell a new chauffeur-driven limousine.

We will Richard a supply of drivers's licenses.

We will Kathy Sutherland a private COOK.

Roy Watters and Robin Reid will William the Playboys at the Shamrock and the ice box to go with it.

Diana wills Rose the right to eat pickles in English without being caught.

We will Lavina the ability to grow blonde hair.

We will Kathy Koen a new Malibu so she can go down the streets faster.

We will Lulu a motorcycle to get to school on next year.

We will Glenda the ability to type a little slower so she will have more friends.

We will Susan the privilege of doing all the annual pages next year since they are so much fun to do anyway.

We will Coach Spradley the ability to be like Coach Johnson.

We will the next year's Seniors a quick start from the parking lot.

We will Steven Saylor the ability to make a "C."

We will Mr. Head an Aggie joke book.

The Senior football boys will Coach Johnson another year of Senior Lady leaders.

We will Mr. Davis the ability to beat Mr. Browning in mumblety-peg.

Robin wills Tommy Standley a watch and a compass so he won't miss the next bus back from the State fair.

We will Mr. Browning $10 worth of change so you can hear him farther off.

We will Mrs. Henry the ability to keep the rubber bands from flying.

Consumer Education Class wills Miss Patty a class next year that will get their lessons.

We will Mr. Roberson the Sheriff's job.

The Senior Bookkeepers will "Mommy Dear" a room full of Joe's and Lee's.

We will Larry some Brains.

Jac and Elaine will Mrs. Kensing some more rebels.

Witness this our hand the 14th day of April 1973.

CLASS PROPHECY

This year for the prophecy, we consulted Mrs. Jeanne Dixon of Washington, D.C. Unfortunately, Mrs. Dixon, the author of several best-selling books of prophecy, was unable to personally give us individual prophecies for this year's Seniors. However, she did give us instructions on how to make these prophecies ourselves. We obtained most of the paraphernalia for our occult experiment from the Home Ec. Dept. Miss Patty graciously supplied us with a dead chicken, an eye of newt, a knife, some wolfbane, and a rusty fondue pot. So, with appreciation to Miss Patty and Mrs. Dixon, we present the 1973 Junior Class Prophecy:

We see Mrs. Haddock back in the Jr. English class assigning 12 Stories to read for the next day, and saying, 'You have about ten minutes before the bell rings. I bet if you got started on these, you could have half of them read before the end of the period.'

We can't believe it - Mrs. Cockrell has finally decided to drop acid . . . But, in her nose.

We see Bill Bishop on his way home at 10:30 after a date with Jac. Bill, we didn't know you went through Lometa to get to your house.

We see Yvonne and Charles celebrating midnight, New Year's Eve, on board a capsized ocean-liner.

We see David rescuing Yvonne and Charles from the capsized ocean-liner with his cutting torch because Mr. Roberson told him how and let him out of Chemistry to do it.

Here's Elaine on her way to Baylor U., side-tracked in Siberia, saying: 'I know exactly where we are.'

Mr. Roberson and Carly Simon have just released an album of a series of hoarse croakings in the distance entitled NO SUCRETS.

We see Ricky winning the state boxing championship. In the girls' division.

Here's Joe planning another one of his parties at the river. What's this? Horace has decided to join you again?

Here's Mr. Harlow finally discovering the trigometric function for curing premature gray hair. Now he's hard at work on a function for baldness, to share with Coach Baker.

We see Ricky Stacy opening up his own "body" shop.

Diana's still getting a thrill out of her weekend trips to San Saba to serenade Billy, Rita, and Joe.

We see Patti getting another new car. Now the boys in San Saba won't know who's chasing them. Maybe she'll catch one.

As a result of an incident in Freshman Home Ec. this past year, Miss Patty is closely inspecting all 'FISH' casseroles for raw chickens.

Here's Bill Fisher renting out his old shoes for fishing boats.

Here's Macine getting ready for a date with Mark. Mac, are you sure that dress is long enough?

Coach Baker has published a new song called, 'Merrily, merrily, merrily, merrily, life is but a Track Meet.'

Here's Robin on his way to Colorado. Back home his mother is cleaning out his closet. What's this she finds? Five cases of empty cans?

We see Kathy Curtis storming into Sally Saylor's back yard. Jac, have you torn up another run-through?

Andy has found that Kathy makes an excellent Cook.

To entertain her steady, Cheryl has purchased a book entitled, 'Jokes for the John.'

We see Mr. Browning and O'Donnel Newton tied for Cosmopolitan's Best Dressed Man of the Year contest. Runner-up: Burt Reynolds.

We see Kathy Gist ringing Bell's chimes.

The Mad Scientist at work.

A SIGN OF THE TIMES . . .
This was the theme for the Spring Festival. The program covered subjects from pollution, conflicts between the races, moon explorations, modern fashions, women's lib to television commercials. The festival was complete with a huge computer and a mad scientist who somehow pulled the wrong levers because the festival had to be called off during the first half due to rain. This year the Spring Festival was truly a big "splash!!!"

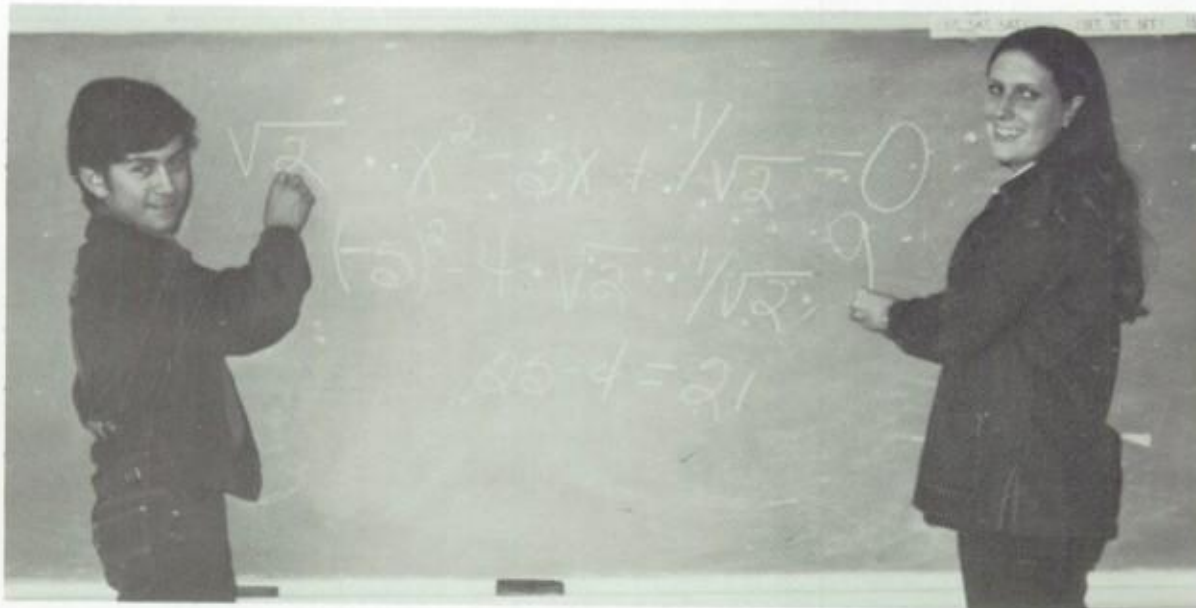

Fifth Grade shows pollution in Garbage City.

Headstart did the skit "Playground in my Mind."
